RESUME

Charles N. Mills III
13401 Dille Drive
Upper Marlboro, Maryland 20772

Objective:

Enhance the training and skill level of our officers to the highest degree, so they may serve our communities to the best of their ability and safely complete their tour of duty everyday. Enlighten and enhance the knowledge, understanding and professional skills of those committed to protecting the laws of our land with proven progressive programs and instruction.

Work Experience:

8/99 – Present Prince George's County Police Department, Academy,
13401 Dille Drive, Upper Marlboro, Maryland
Director Judgmental Training (Civilian Position)

Duties include: conceive, research, develop, implement, manage and instruct basic and advanced law enforcement officer training programs dealing with tactics, deadly force, use of force, less-lethal force, firearms, and officer survival issues. Identify training needs and provide guidance in training relevancy and presentation techniques to other administrators and academy staff instructors regarding lesson plan development. Assure that adequate officer assessment procedures are established. Script, direct, and produce video scenarios for use on our interactive judgmental use of force training program. Consult and advise law enforcement representatives from local, state, and federal agencies upon request. Provide assistance to the Prince George's County Attorney's office and represent the County government during litigation in federal and state courts in the fields of police use of deadly force and related training issues. Act as a resource specialist for the Police Department's Legal Affairs office and Personnel office, as well as various commissions and committees, pertaining to use of force matters. Review training standards and act as an advisor during post shooting critiques in cooperation with the command staff, the Psychological Services section and Internal Affairs Division of the agency. Coordinate and conduct post critical incident transition programs for sworn officers who have directly or indirectly been involved in a shooting confrontation. Regularly present orientation programs for current Grand Jury, Citizen Police Academy and others as required.

Work Experience: (continued)

6/98 – 8/99 Acting Director, Judgmental Training (Sworn Position)

Duties include: Same duties as Director Judgmental Training just carried out in the acting capacity.

3/96 – 5/98 Academy Instructor
(Maryland Police Training Commission Certified Instructor)

Duties included instructing sworn law enforcement officers and recruits in the areas of: use of force, defensive tactics, ASP tactical baton, O.C. spray, chemical agents, basic survival tactics, simunition training, tactical alternatives and firearms training.

3/94 – 2/96 Firearms Instructor – Pistol Range
(Maryland Police Training Commission Certified Instructor)

Duties included training sworn law enforcement officers and recruits in the proper care, handling and use of their handguns/shotguns. Also working with remedial officers and recruits on shooting mechanics and shooting techniques in an attempt to improve their skills. During my tenure at the pistol range, I designed a combat moving and shooting course that was incorporated by the Department into their training program.

10/83 – 3/94 Special Operations Division
(Tactical Section / Emergency Services Team)

While assigned to the Tactical Section as a sworn law enforcement officer, I handled many diverse assignments including uniform patrol, undercover surveillance, stakeouts, felony warrant pick-ups, and high-risk tactical incidents such as barricades and raids. Assignments also included crowd control and security for events at the Capital Centre and abortion protests, as well as funeral details.

While assigned to the Emergency Services Team as a sworn law enforcement officer, I handled high-risk incidents including barricades and homicide, robbery and narcotic raids, as well as raids for various federal agencies. I also handled high-risk street riots involving narcotics/weapons. Assignments included dignitary protection for the President and Vice-President of the United States, as well as any foreign heads of state while they were in Prince George's County. I was also trained as a scuba diver for search and rescue operations and weapon/body recoveries.

During my time in the Special Operations Division, I participated in over 800 raids/street- riots and was responsible for hundreds of felony and misdemeanor arrests.

Work Experience: (continued)11/77 – 10/83 Patrol Division (District IV)

While assigned to the Patrol Division at District IV, I worked as a sworn uniform patrol officer handling diverse assignments in the community.
